Fifth Grade

Teacher Feature

Ms. Jupp is a fifth grade teacher who teaches reading, language arts and social studies. She attended Stephen F. Austin University Nacogdoches, and got her degree in Elementary Education in May of 2010. Between her and her switch class she teaches a class of forty eight-students total.

Fun Fact

22 students out of 24 like back board battle ball, no one likes soccer and two people like kickball and none like soccer.

Student Interview

I interviewed two students from Ms. Jupp's class in fifth grade their names were Caitlyn and Brayden. Caitlyn likes science best while Brayden prefers social studies. However, they both prefer P.E to music and art. On a level of hardest to easiest Caitlyn rated it a nine and Brayden rated it a seven. Neither of them would enjoy being in sixth grade band they would both prefer being in electives such as newspaper or environmental stud-
